PRELUDE: Trio from Suite du premier ton

Louis-Nicolas Clérambault (1676-1749)

INTROIT HYMN: TiS 456 'Your hand, O God, has guided'

SENTENCE: 'Of Jesus many said, 'What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!' Mark 6.2

The Service continues on page 119 of 'A Prayer Book for Australia'

COLLECT: O Lord our God, you are always more ready to bestow your good gifts upon us than we are to seek them; and more willing to give than we desire or deserve: in our every need, grant us the first and best of all your gifts, the Spirit who makes us your children. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: 2 Samuel 5.1-5, 9-10

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, 'Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.' So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inwards. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord, the God of hosts, was with him.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

PSALM: 48 (APBA pp. 270,271)

Chant: Goss

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 12.2-10

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows— was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given to me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

GRADUAL HYMN: TiS 425 'Come, Spirit blest, our hearts inspire'

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Choir: Alleluia

ALL: Alleluia, Alleluia.

Choir: *The Spirit of the Lord is upon me:
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.*

ALL: Alleluia, Alleluia.

The GOSPEL of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 6.1-13

ALL: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

He left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Recognised as one of the great masterpieces of the Romantic Era, Schubert's "Die Winterreise" is a song cycle tracing the Winter's journey of one man through a dark landscape of love, longing, and loss. These demanding and beautiful 24 songs require an equal partnership between pianist and singer to evoke the rich imagery of the Winter landscape and the lover's emotional journey. Join us at the conclusion of the concert with a warming cup of mulled wine. Admission: $25; Concessions $20. Ticket sales at the door.

Sidepersons' Roster - due to the well-deserved retirement of some of our welcomers I now find myself desperately short of people to fill the next roster. The job is quite straight forward - welcoming the congregation and handing out books, at the beginning of the morning, taking the chalice up before communion, and putting away books at the end of the service (and closing windows). If anybody feels able to do this, as part of a team, once a month at the most, but even if you could manage every other month, please see me, or ring me on 0416 152 313. Alex Daunt
