PRELUDE: Sonata 111/ii

Johan Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

INTROIT HYMN: TiS 680 (t. 87) 'God! As with silent hearts'

SENTENCE: 'Give and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back. Luke 6.38

The Service continues on page 119 of 'A Prayer Book for Australia'

COLLECT: O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of evil and make us your children and heirs of eternal life: grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Ruth 3.1-5; 4.13-17

Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, 'My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing-floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing-floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.' She said to her, 'All that you tell me I will do.' So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the Lord made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, 'Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.' Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighbourhood gave him a name, saying, 'A son has been born to Naomi.' They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

PSALM: 127 Please turn to APBA p. 362. Chant: Howells

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9.23-28

Thus it was necessary for the sketches of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves need better sacrifices than these. For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

GRADUAL HYMN: TiS 599 'Take my life and let it be'

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Choir: Alleluia

ALL: Alleluia, alleluia

Choir: *Happy are the poor in spirit:
The kingdom of heaven is theirs!*

ALL: Alleluia, alleluia

The GOSPEL of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark Chapter 12.38-44

ALL: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

As he taught, he said, 'Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the market-places, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honour at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.' He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

An updated St Mary's Pathways Prayer:

Loving Father, we long to grow at St Mary's, to become a more exciting, reflective, life-giving parish family. Every week, as we gather in worship inspire us through your Holy Spirit to take new steps on our Parish Pathway Journey. Let us build that pathway to faith and service, encouraging each other, our friends and acquaintances. We ask this in Jesus name. AMEN.

The names of the those to be remembered who were involved in WW1 are read out by different members of the congregation.

The Lord's prayer will be chanted in Maori.

ITEMS FOR THE FOOD PANTRY: St Mary's collects non-perishable food and toiletry items, for donation to Holy Trinity Pantry, for distribution to those in need. Items can be left in a box near the font.

Father Gary and Marie Claire will be taking holidays from 16 to 24 November. Canon Richard Tutin will be taking the services on 18 November.

St Mary's has now installed a sound recorder. This means that the services will normally be recorded. We are investigating how the services or part of the services can be made available on the website.

Tiffany Black is assisting the parish in re-designing the Parish website. It has been a number of years since the website was first designed and the technology has greatly changed in that time. The idea is to make the website more interactive with other forms of social media, easy to use and with improved facilities.

The little Fishes Playgroup disbanded a week ago, after 25 years, as a result of a lack of parents and children coming to this group. We thank Alexandra for the last eight years she has led this group. In the coming week the playgroup toys and other equipment will be distributed among other playgroups.

There is no Parish Council meeting this week.

The Naval poppy wall under construction.
